DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors. These errors render the claims confusing and difficult to examine. It is hard to ascertain what is being claimed.

Additionally, claim 2 does not further limit claim 1. Claim 1 contains the limitation "sorting out the defective parisons only after being heated", while claim 2 contains the limitation "sorting out even before being heated".

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Burns et al. (US Patent 6,584,805); Lucas (US Patent 5,935,285); Birckbichler et al. (US Patent 6,863,860); and Davis et al. (US Patent 6,620,352).
